

NATURE | CONSERVATION
CONSERVANCY | DE LA NATURE
C A N A D A

The plains gartersnake is one of six resident snake species found in Alberta. The other species are the bullsnake, prairie rattlesnake, red-sided gartersnake, wandering gartersnake and western hog-nosed snake.

Of Alberta's six resident snake species, only one, the prairie rattlesnake, possesses venom that is harmful to humans.