

CONSERVATION CROSSWORD

			1.
2.
												3.		4.
	5.
							6.			7.
									8.
	9.
					10.
									11.
12.
							13.

Across

- 1. Some birds, squirrels and other animals live in holes in trees, also known as a “_____.”(This can also happen to teeth)
- 2. The site and particular type of local environment occupied by a species or group of species.
- 5. Describes a relationship in which an individual has only one partner during their lifetime or at any one time.
- 8. This family can catch upwards of 1,000 mice in one nesting season! (two words)
- 11. A baby hare.
- 12. The largest North American waterfowl, all white and mates for life. Stands between 152 and 182 centimetres tall.
- 13. The only canine in the western hemisphere that can climb trees.(two words)

Down

- 1. The area where the Nature Conservancy of Canada works to create a critical land bridge to encourage interbreeding between Nova Scotian and New Brunswick moose. (two words)
- 3. A rabbit’s home.
- 4. A taxonomic rank between order and genus in the biological nomenclature.
- 6. Some species can live in these instead of the answer to clue 1 across.
- 7. This species belongs to the canis family, is known for its haunting howls (particularly in Ontario’s Algonquin Park) and hunts in packs of three to six individuals. (two words)
- 9. Often portrayed as industrious workers, these mammals maintain elaborate dams and lodges.
- 10. A young swan.

Need help? Visit our glossary: <https://www.natureconservancy.ca/en/what-we-do/resource-centre/glossary>